Ere you again see such a display of Fine Art Clothing for Men, Boys and Children, as that now on exhibition and sale at

Z. C. M. I. CLOTHING DEPT

The great markets of the east were thoroughly searched for not only the Latest Novelties, but also for the Best and Most Serviceable Goods that money could purchase. We are satisfied our buyer did well, and more than that, that our customers will be the gainers because of that fact.

There is Room

Only, even in such a space as this, to mention but a few of our attractive goods:

ALL ARE NEAT, NOBBY, NEW AND NICE.

MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

Comes in particularly attractive styles this year, and there is nothing we have not got. Worsteds in plain and fancy, Cassimeres and Cheviots, latest plaids, both foreign and domestic.

Glance at the cuts in the corners. They will convey to you some idea of the cut, style and finish of the goods we ask you to inspect.

The Princeton sack is up to date; the Cambridge and Oxford square, single and double-breasted were never equalled in this market. We also have the latest in three-button cutaways.

Finest Line of Dress Suits Ever Known.

Send your boy to the Clothing Department for one of our picture books. He will be welcome.

HATS AND CAPS

We are agents for the Celebrated Imperial Hat, but we also have a full assortment of the Stetsons.

SHIRTS OF ALL KINDS

Dress and Nightgown. But we take special pride in proving that we have the most beautiful line of colored front shirts that can be seen anywhere.

OVERCOATS AND MACKINTOSHES

The line now on sale is conceded by connoisseurs to be the peer of that seen elsewhere, and a trip to New York would get you no better.

One of our specialties this year is Boys' and Children's Overcoats and Reefers, and another specialty is the prices asked.

TO TELL THE WHOLE TRUTH

There is not a solitary thing under the sun in the shape of Gent's Furnishing Goods that we do not carry, and the man never lived whose tastes we cannot satisfy, and whose purse we cannot fit.

As to Neckwear, we are Leaders.

RAINING TAFFY UPON WILLIAM

McKinley Receives Encouraging News from Colorado.

DELEGATIONS EXPECTED

HERDS OF MEN WHO WILL BE DRIVEN UP THIS WEEK.

The Sage of Canton goes to Church, listens to a sermon by his new pastor, and then takes a drive. He felt in no wise fatigued by his day of speech-making yesterday.

Major McKinley thinks Saturday was perhaps the most remarkable day of the campaign, when the delegations visiting here reached high water mark. This week will be one of the most interesting of the whole campaign.

It begins, Monday, with the call of a large delegation of farmers from Missouri, and Tuesday an excursion of Republicans from central New York will occupy a conspicuous place among the visiting delegations.

The event of commanding interest will be the visit of 500 old Confederate veterans on Friday. They are coming from the Shenandoah valley, and arrangements for their reception are being perfected.

The Grand Army posts of Canton will entertain the ex-Confederates. More news of a cheering character has been received by Major McKinley from all parts of the country today. Reports from Colorado and the Pacific slope are reassuring and from West Virginia comes the news of good prospects there, and that the state will be carried by the Republicans by a majority exceeding 5,000.

The delegations expected in Canton this week are as follows: Monday—Farmers of Missouri. Tuesday—Citizens of Wayne county, Indiana; Republicans of Syracuse and central New York; lumber dealers of Buffalo; Republican clubs of Lenawee, Michigan.

Wednesday—Republicans of Randolph county, Indiana; the First McKinley club of Indiana; Cuyahoga county, Ohio; McKinley clubs; Republicans of Parkersburg, W. Va.; Republicans of Ashland county, Ohio.

Thursday—First voters of Cleveland, Ohio; citizens of Kirtland, Pa.; citizens of Loganport, Indiana; Republicans of Williamsport, Pa.

Friday—Two thousand citizens of east Tennessee; McKinley clubs of Bedford, Pa.; Warren and Forest counties, Pa.; five hundred ex-Confederates of the Shenandoah valley.

Saturday—Slaveholders of Cleveland; Republicans of Newmarket, Ind.; veteran soldiers and citizens of Maryland; citizens of Louisville, Ky.; commercial travellers of Indianapolis, Rochester, New York, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Mansfield, Ohio; citizens of Lansing, Michigan; citizens of the Wyoming and Lackawanna valleys; rolling mill men of South End, Cleveland.

workmen of New York city; Republicans of Lebanon, Pa.

FOUR STUDENTS DEAD.

Five More Injured by the Burning of an Academy.

ANTLER, Indian Territory, Oct. 4.—Four students lost their lives and five were injured last night by the burning of Spencer academy. The dead:

John Smith, Daniel James, Thomas Kuntz, William Man Wilson. The injured:

Alfred Bryant, Harris Fisher, Colton Bacon, Ed Clark, Samuel Spring.

The victims are children of Choctaw parents. The fire started at 11 o'clock and before all the boys could be aroused from their sleep, death came to four. Many jumped from the windows of the building, but fortunately only the five named were badly injured.

The academy, which is twenty miles from Antler, was completely destroyed. It is not known where and how the flames originated.

There were 110 boys in the school. All were in bed when the fire broke out. Superintendent Jeter was aroused and was soon directing the exit of the boys. The building burned like tinder and despite the good work of Mr. Jeter, fatalities resulted.

Many of the students had their hair singed and were burned about the hands and face, but those named above are the most seriously hurt.

One of the boys who was burned to death was a cripple and the other three were in rooms in which there were no windows. Their moans and groans were heart sickening. The academy was built by the Choctaw nation, and is a total loss as the nation did not carry any insurance.

COUDERT RETURNS.

Says There Are Many Things to Be Done in the Venezuelan Case.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Hon. Frederick R. Coudert, of the Venezuelan commission, returned this morning on the La Touraine after nearly three months abroad. In Paris, in Holland, at The Hague and several weeks at Hamburg, Germany, Mr. Coudert's trip was made partly for recreation, but mainly in connection with the duties relative to the Venezuelan matter. In this connection Mr. Coudert said:

"I see by the newspapers that they have completely settled the Venezuelan complications, and I know every man on the commission would be satisfied if they had been arranged in a manner satisfactory to all the parties, but I regret to say such is not the case.

Prof. Burr, of Cornell, has been examining all the records in this controversy and has spent two or three months in Holland. He is a fine scholar and has procured the history of the whole matter. Pretty nearly every document that exists on the subject has been seen and studied thoroughly. He has also examined the records in England. Every German, Mr. Coudert's trip was made partly for recreation, but mainly in connection with the duties relative to the Venezuelan matter. In this connection Mr. Coudert said:

"While we have a general knowledge of the subject, there are many facts to be decided by the report which will be useful in reaching what we hope will be a just conclusion.

The Venezuelan commission, Mr. Coudert thinks, will meet on Friday.

The parish council of Rudwick, Sussex, England, possesses an official seal in which the occupations of all the members are indicated. The seal is represented by an open Bible, the farmer by some trees, the coal dealer by a sack, the miller by a mill, the innkeeper by a bottle and jug, the bootmaker by a boot, the auctioneer by a hammer, the doctor by a medicine bottle, the carpenter by a plane and the baker by a loaf.

GERMANY IS WATCHING US

Intense Interest on the Continent Over the Coming Election.

THE OPINIONS ARE VARIED

MEN WITH MONEY SYMPATHIZE WITH MCKINLEY.

Agrarians, on the Other Hand, Look Upon Bryan as a Sort of Savior, and Rejoice in the Utterances of Prince Bismarck in His Recent Letter to Governor Culberson, of Texas—The Troubles of the Sultan—Socialists' Movements.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—[Copyrighted 1896, by the United Associated Presses.]—The action of the Berlin Tageblatt in contracting with the United Associated Presses for the special American service of that organization, which is now being delivered daily to a large number of European journals, is significant of the intensity of the interest which is taken on the continent in the political prospect in the United States.

The bureau, which is among those occupied in watching the progress of the campaign in America, is looking forward eagerly to more definite indications of the outcome of the election than estimates and boasts of the rival political parties have hitherto supplied. The commercial community, despite their antipathy to the tariff views held by Mr. McKinley, are hoping for the triumph of the "sound money" or gold party, while the agrarians, on the other hand, regard Candidate Bryan as a sort of savior.

A SORT OF ROUGH JUSTICE and served its purpose. Of late years, especially since the spread of socialism among the rural population of upper Bavaria, it has degenerated into a riotous and "moonlighting" custom, by which people were shot, cattle maimed and property burned. During a quarrel a few nights ago, a former victim of the haberdashery custom, the burgomaster of Saulach, a "haberdasher," the burgomaster promptly arrested the man for having insulted him by an amicable agreement among the efforts of his friends to obtain his release have been unsuccessful. The burgomaster having refused the sum of 30,000 marks ($20,000) for his liberation, the case has been referred to the courts. The semi-official press make much of the supposed influence which Baron Saurma von Keltch, the German ambassador to Turkey, exercises over the sultan, which the papers ascribe to the Turkish monarch's conviction that the representative of Germany at Constantinople is not actuated by selfish aims. The papers also connect with this presumed feeling on the part of the sultan, the reported departure from Constantinople for Berlin of General Grun, a German officer in the Ottoman service as the bearer of an autograph letter from the sultan to the kaiser. It is stated that the communication expresses the sultan's gratitude.

THE SULTAN'S GRATITUDE at the attitude assumed by Germany in the Turkish crisis, and ascribes the troubles in Turkey to revolutionary agitators. The sultan also, according to report, assures the kaiser that the Christians in Turkey will be absolutely safeguarded unless they indulge in anarchistic excesses.

A paper here prints an amazing story of a scheme for the division of Turkey, claiming the whole of Asiatic Turkey for Germany, adding that Germany may possibly allow the sultan to remain ruler under a German protectorate, assuming the direction and administration only of affairs of the Tigris and Euphrates valleys.

The socialists now hold seats as follows: Saxony, 14; Bavaria, 5; Saxony-Altenburg, 4; Wurttemberg, Baden, Hesse and Rhine, each, 3; Saxony-Weimar, Saxony-Meiningen and Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt, each 1. The committee of the socialist women's propaganda have anticipated the coming congress of the socialist party at Stettin, near Gotha, by holding a series of five meetings in Berlin, concluding on Saturday with a grand fête in aid of the propaganda fund.

The Polish national movement is again causing considerable anxiety to the government, although NOTHING OF A SERIOUS NATURE is supposed to be imminent; but there is abundant evidence that the continued efforts of the government to Germanize Prussian Poland have met with a very small degree of success.

The national spirit in that territory is very strong, and it is being fostered by the Roman Catholic clergy. Many instances of boycotting and other annoying German settlers are reported, and these show that the feeling of discontent is widespread. On the occasion of a recent visit of Archbishop Strabawski to Spalmitza the populace became greatly excited and in the height of their frenzy administered a severe mauling to the imperial representative. The act has caused great indignation among the inhabitants of the Protestant districts of the empire, and an official inquiry is now in progress with a view of punishing the offenders.

The notorious Bavarian haberdashery, a species of lynch law, has had a sudden and unexpected check. It was remembered that it was an ancient custom, said to have dated back to Charlemagne, traditionally set in motion after the close of the harvest season with a view of settling old scores with obnoxious persons in the rural districts. In the olden times, it was

THEY MUST GO. Porte Will Require the Bulgarian Government to Expel All Unemployed Armenians.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Constantinople representative of the United Associated Presses telegraphs that the porte will require the Bulgarian government to expel all unemployed Armenians from the country. The request will be based on the ground that the idle Armenians assemble in the cafes in Sofia and other large towns of Bulgaria, and constitute a nuisance.

The Bulgarian diplomatic agent at Constantinople has protested against the proposed action of the Turkish government.

The correspondent further says that serious disturbances occurred at the Yildiz Kiosk, the sultan's residence, on Thursday. Twenty theological students desired to obtain an audience with the sultan. Upon their request being refused, they attempted to force themselves into the presence of his majesty. The troops who were on duty prevented their entrance, but in doing so killed three of the students. The others were arrested.

MISS BARTON.

Her Friends Have Made Arrangements for Her Reception.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—In response to the earnest desire of many people to welcome Miss Barton on her return from her difficult and dangerous mission to Turkey, the District of Columbia Auxiliary Red Cross society has made arrangements for a reception at the Shoreham on Thursday evening, October 8. During the public reception, there will be no opportunity for addresses of welcome. At the close, however, the officers of the organization of Mrs. Matthis was to have the United States of the board of trade and of the churches, will assemble with Miss Barton and her staff in the oval dining room, where a banquet will be served to about 100 guests and her welcoming words will be spoken and responses made by Miss Barton and her co-workers in Armenia.

GREAT TRIBUTE TO HIM. Two Hundred Factory Girls Make a Strong and Probably Successful Fight for Their Employer.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Two hundred factory girls have made possible the nomination of their employer for mayor of this city. The hottest ante-election contest that has ever taken place in the Republican party in this city has been in progress for a fortnight, and yesterday in primaries in all the wards elected delegates to the city convention which nominates a mayor on next Tuesday.

The candidates were Frank Hull, president of the Duchess Manufacturing company, and former County Treasurer. Several days ago Hull looked as if Sherrill had the call in the primaries, and Mr. Hull at once assembled his employees at the factory and solicited their support. The girls, 200 in number, with whom Mr. Hull is very popular, responded at once to his call, and they began the most novel political canvass ever seen in this city.

The factory girls secured the city for votes for Mr. Hull. Fathers, brothers and sweethearts were button-holed and persuaded to vote for Mr. Hull. The efforts of the girls saved the day, and Hull carried four of the seven wards, winning twenty delegates against Sherrill's fifteen. Behind the contest was a struggle between State Committeeman L. H. Vail and Robert P. Hunter for control of the local machine, and Mr. Vail won.

IT HAS CALMED THE HOT HEADS

Decided Attitude of the Powers Has Had a Good Effect.

THE TURKS FRIGHTENED

AFRAID OF THE CONSEQUENCES OF THEIR OWN ACTS.

Demands of the Armenians Are Said to Be Unjustifiable and Impracticable—Turks Were Only Wrong in Not Distinguishing the Innocent from the Guilty—Leaders of the Revolters Are Mainly Ambitious Students.

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—The Lokal Anzeiger publishes an interview with Baron Von Sauerma Jeltsch, the German ambassador to Turkey, anent the situation in that country. The ambassador says he does not think that the recent horrors will be soon renewed. The Turks have been somewhat frightened by their own acts, and the decided attitude of the powers has calmed the hot heads.

Continuing, Baron Von Sauerma Jeltsch declares that the demands of the Armenians are unjustifiable and impracticable. They have great freedom in religion and trade, and are very prosperous. The unscrupulous manner of trading has stirred up much blood between the conservatives and the Turks. They have no regard for anything or anybody. They have plundered Turkey for centuries, and are unscrupulous and dishonest dealers. The Turks were only wrong in their manner of crushing the rebellion, that is, in not distinguishing the innocent from the guilty. In reality, there was only one revolutionist among a thousand Armenians. The leaders of the revolt were mainly ambitious students.
